About Us

Seedfield Studios is a story-first creative studio based in Atlanta, working with filmmakers, brands, and agencies worldwide. We specialize in development-driven storytelling, from script to screen — building narratives that connect and campaigns that convert.

At Seedfield, we lead with story. Our process is rooted in collaboration, clarity, and creative stewardship — giving every project the structure and style it needs to thrive. We don't chase trends; we craft films and campaigns that resonate and endure.
